

operating your business featuring

Design

business structure in task oriented permissions hierarchy simulating different departments in real business communication channels & info paths between business departments through messaging, alerting & scheduling scheme for different tasks, customize reporting and auditing

Centralized location for all business files, employee cv, certificate digital copy ..etc you have the ability to design your locations and attributes,

File management itself is a free tool included with the system, also host a settings section which might host different free tools as add-on for your system, scanning tool, fixes and tools dedicated to your system

Reporting section

give a wide range of reports leveraging different business department's , Easy & flexible interface provide different printing and reviewing requirement's with ability to further edit and customization, you can have your reports routed to desired section in reporting screen for different department's

Auditing

give you a full control over your business through designing audit policy at three levels (user, department& task), further more you can enforce operation audit so and modification is described by user in mini report, finally edited items always have a mirror copy for different last versions to get closer look at modifications applied

Business Operating System solutions www.egbos.com 203 5456 387 2012 22534157

BOS

Business
Operating Systems

Solutions

PERFECTION
EXTRAORDINARY
managing your business customers individuals or business subscribers through which model a customer pay specific share of service fees which you determine at service level flexible and easy invoicing for individual & business identities, with claim wizard for contracted business through which you claim different services inpatient / outpatient servicing flexible and handy physician fees management scheduling for different tasks with messaging and alerting capabilities, special attention for outpatient scheduling which provide full clinics schedule, inpatient servicing scheduling for nursing & physicians medical supplies management at inpatient and outpatient level are under control and thanks to inventory module capabilities of units management you can handle patient usage at any level supplies can be volatile (used as soon as it is withdraw with no need to ticket or permit such as cotton) managing medical assistance module including Clinical Laboratory & ray scanning supplies in complex mode (product may have sub-products mixed (sanitizers) as an example supplies can transfer between divisions through normal inventory procedures or through orders inpatient scheduling for services including accommodation which provide rooms monitoring, managing & booking, also servicing patient (medication, follow up with online reporting) outpatient que management with online screening and announcing complete control over your business divisions, you can have as many clinics as you need with full customization, you can customize inpatient and related buildings, floors & rooms fully customized medical services & treatments, you can customize service naming, pricing, relations to servicing class, accommodation physician payroll include contracted, per visit, per service, multi demission for physician percentage per service shift management ability for multiple concurrent shifts, with complete independency for treatment and financially servicing inpatient at multiple classes with different pricing scheme manage medical equipments used in treatments with multiple profile for different type of equipment general business modules tailored for medical field include accounting, inventory & HR providing typical medical firm management system

MEDICAL SECTOR

SOLUTION

Medical solution can manage a simple clinic, lab or enterprise hospital thanks to core modules included which cover inpatient, outpatient & laboratories for more information you can visit www.egbos.com or call 203 5456 387 - 2012 225 34157

 Business
operating system